Horst Shewmaker Announces Community Backpack Giveaway for Local Families

August 03, 2026

ALPHARETTA, GA - August 03, 2026 -
Horst Shewmaker, LLC, a personal injury law firm serving Alpharetta and North Fulton County, announces a community initiative to provide backpacks and school supplies to local children ahead of the upcoming school year. The Horst Shewmaker Backpack Giveaway aims to support families facing financial barriers to back-to-school preparation, reflecting the firm's commitment to investing in the neighborhoods where its clients live and work.

The backpack giveaway represents an extension of the firm's core values beyond the courtroom. The same principles of fairness, accountability, and genuine care that drive the firm's advocacy for injured clients now shape its approach to community engagement. Each backpack will contain essential school supplies, helping ensure that children in Alpharetta and surrounding North Fulton County neighborhoods can start the academic year prepared and confident.

"When we represent families in personal injury cases, we see firsthand the financial pressures that unexpected challenges can create," said Zachary S. Shewmaker, Attorney at Horst Shewmaker, LLC. "The families receiving these backpacks are our neighbors - we see them at school events, in local businesses, and throughout the community every day. Legal practice in Alpharetta means more than serving clients who walk through our door. It means being invested in the wellbeing of the whole community, especially children starting a new school year."

As Alpharetta continues its rapid growth as one of Georgia's most economically active communities, established institutions including law firms play a crucial role in supporting the families who make that community work. The firm's investment extends beyond professional and commercial infrastructure to address the practical needs of local residents.

The five-attorney team at Horst Shewmaker, LLC - Michael W. Horst, Zachary S. Shewmaker, Jarrett L. Miller, Torrie L. Dale, and Valerie Jane Pallos - has recovered more than $30 million for personal injury clients throughout North Fulton County, Metro Atlanta, and statewide Georgia. The firm, voted Best of Georgia 2025, handles cases involving car accidents, truck accidents, motorcycle crashes, pedestrian incidents, premises liability, and wrongful death. All cases are managed on a contingency fee basis, ensuring that access to legal representation never becomes a barrier for injured Alpharetta residents.

The firm's sustained presence in Alpharetta has established it as more than a legal service provider. Through initiatives like the Backpack Giveaway, Horst Shewmaker, LLC demonstrates that community investment and legal advocacy share common ground in promoting fairness and supporting those who need assistance.
